

Dear Annapolis High Students,

Thank you for auditioning for the Improv Troupe among some of the other productions. Mr. KorbelaK and Eliza Poffenberger (Improv Troupe Manager) are very much so looking forward to working with this incredibly talented group of students. As always, there were difficulties choosing a group that not only showcased improvisation skill and talent, but also demonstrates the capability to work well together. In most cases, the best improv actors try to show off their partners on the stage not themselves. We believe this group demonstrates cohesiveness and a high skill level in improvisation.

If you were not cast in the Improv Troupe, there will be opportunities throughout the year to workshop with Mr. KorbelaK and the Improv Troupe, so you can develop your skill set. Also, please double check to see if you were called back for either the Murder Mystery or the Emcee positions for the spring musical revue, New Hollywood City. Also, auditions for the play are next Thursday.

If you have any questions, please contact the directors below. If possible, make sure we are all on the same email.

Focus.	Believe in yourselves.
Enthusiasm.	Believe in each other.
Flexibility.	Believe in us.
Incredibility.	Believe in our Company.

With deepest regards,

Mr. Parr
